For general information call 01732 876034 or email parking.office@tmbc.gov.uk

If the Penalty Charge is not paid or challenged

If the Penalty Charge is not paid on or before the end of the 28 day period as specified on the front of this notice or successfully challenged the council may serve a Notice to Owner (NIO) on the owner of the vehicle requiring payment of the Penalty Charge. The owner can then make representations to the Council and may appeal to an independent adjudicator if those representations are rejected. The NIO will contain instructions for doing this. If you challenge this PCN but the Council issues an NIO anyway, the owner must follow the instructions on the NIO.

Further independent information about Civil Parking Enforcement is available online at www.patrol-uk.info.

Enforcement authority

Where this PCN is issued for a contravention in an off street car park, the enforcement authority is Tonbridge and Malling Borough Council. In all other cases the enforcement authority is Kent County Council, with Tonbridge and Malling Borough Council acting as its agent.

Proof of Postage

If sending correspondence or payment by post it is always advisable to retain proof of postage as you may be asked to provide this in a case of undelivered payment or challenge.
